

Competitors Terms and Conditions

The following Terms and Conditions relate to all events promoted by Rutland marathon Ltd

Terms The above-named organisation and its event partners will be collectively referred to as 'The Promoters'. All applicants both prospective and successful from this point forward will be referred to as 'Event Applicants'.

Once the promoters have started to organise an event, there is a considerable amount of work, expense and risk. The event takes many hundreds of hours of forward planning and huge financial risk. The following Conditions of entry are designed to ensure we have a safe and enjoyable event. We appreciate your support for the event and request you adhere to the conditions outlined in this document.

1: Conditions of Entry

By entering any events as made available on the www.rutlandmarathon.com website, be it by use of the online entry system or a paper based system, applicants are agreeing to abide by the following Terms & Conditions' as outlined below.

2: Confirmation of Entry. Satisfactory completion of transactions through the online payment systems confirms the applicants place in the event for which they have applied.

3: Race Information

All necessary race information is published on www.rutlandmarathon.com Please note that provisional race information is subject to change. Updated details of any alterations to provisional race Information initially issued will be made available on the website no later than one week prior to the event date. It is the responsibility of event applicants to ensure that they have accessed the relevant information relating to their event.

4: Competitor Withdrawal:

Please see our separate refund and transfer policies

You can transfer your race entry to another runner at the discretion of Rutland half marathon ltd. Failure to inform us of an entry transferral will result in immediate disqualification. If for any reason event applicants who have already successfully entered an event find themselves unable to race and wish to transfer their entry, the event applicants must inform 'The Promoters' in writing by e-mail to the appropriate e- mail address.

Event applicants should receive a confirmation of their transferral within 5 working days. If this confirmation is not received the event applicants should contact the promoter immediately to verify receipt of their request to transfer. It is the responsibility of the event applicants to ensure that their request has been received.

5: Transferral of entries

Please note that the transferral of entries between competitors without notify the promoters is strictly forbidden as it invalidates insurances undertaken by the promoter to cover the event.

The consequences of attempting such an undertaking by any competitor is so serious in jeopardizing the continuation of events that any athlete found to have passed their entry to another athlete without informing us and any event applicants found to have taken up that entry will be banned for life from all future events through Rutland half Marathon Ltd and it's sister companies. Transferral of entries will not be considered within 8 weeks of the event date.

6: Credit Policy

We regret that we are unable to offer credit on entries.

7: Refunds

Please refer to our refunds policy. These terms are clear and will be implemented without exception.

8: Registration

Details of race registration times will be posted on confirmed race information. All event applicants are required to attend registration within the times specified. Event applicants who do not attend registration within these times will not be allowed to race. It is the responsibility of event applicants to ensure they have accessed the relevant information relating to registration at their event.

9: Photography

The promoters maintain the right to use images and photographs taken by their contracted photographers and employees without informing or recompense to event applicants. These images can be used for promotional purposes as undertaken by the promoters and their partners, This will cover a range of possible uses including advertising press and media, printed information items, editorial coverage and any other promotion directly related to the promoters or their sponsors.

10: Prizes

Prizes at each event will be awarded as published on the events website.

11: Completion of Entry Form

It is the event applicants' responsibility to ensure that the information is correct. Any changes to that information must be given to the promoters before the race entry office closes on race morning. Whilst the promoters will endeavour to solve any problems that arise through incorrectly completed entry forms, if unable to read any section of the entry form, the form will be returned to the event applicants with a request for it to be completed again without the securing of a confirmed place in the event.

12: Late Entries

If places are still available, at the discretion of the promoter, entries will be taken on the morning of the event. The entry desk will close one hour before the start of the event.

13: Event Changes

The above-named Promoters have the right to change any event for the reason of safety without prior notice.

14: Event Cancellation

If the event is cancelled for any reason your entry will automatically be transferred to the 2024 version of the event.

15: Right of refusal for entry:

The Promoters maintain the right to refuse or revoke entry to any event applicants, where they believe that accepting the entry could prejudice the event. This right of refusal extends to include applications where acceptance is considered by the promoters to be likely to infringe upon the enjoyment of any persons connected with the event, including staff, marshals, volunteers & other competitors.

16: Timing:

Event applicants are responsible for returning their timing equipment to race registration. If dropping out then you must tell officials.

Anyone not returning their race chip will incur a fine of £50 and risk disqualification. They may also be banned from participation from future events.

17: Littering:

Anyone littering on the course will be disqualified, Litter zones will be provided next to feed stations. Throw litter in these areas only or use the public bins around the course. This is not only against the marathon rules but is also illegal in this country and is a criminal act. We have no choice but to take this seriously and penalise anyone caught breaking this rule with disqualification.

18: Race rules:

A comprehensive race rules document will be published prior to the event. Please read these carefully. They will be published separately and within the athlete's pack. They may be subject to change and amendments up to a week before the event. We will endeavour to inform participants of any changes; however, it is the athlete's responsibility to make sure they are up to date. Amendments will be posted on the event website.

19: Event Applicants conduct:

It is the event applicants' responsibility to ensure they conduct themselves in not only a courteous, but lawful manner. The event takes place on public areas and you will encounter people who aren't competing. Anyone not adhering to local laws and byelaws automatically forfeits any association with the promoters. You will accept complete responsibility for your personal actions should it incur any complaint or legal action. The promoters will not accept liability for your actions should they incur this kind of attention. Anyone subject to such attention will be immediately disqualified. Marshalls on the course will also have the discretion and authority to enforce penalty to anyone not acting in a courteous manner to staff, the public or their fellow event applicants.

By registering for this event, you are accepting complete responsibility for, but not limited to, any discomfort, illness or injury while preparing for or taking part in this event. You also understand and acknowledge that participating may involve inherent risk that cannot be eradicated completely. You take responsibility and participate accepting this and assume all risk associated with your participation.

Refund Policy 2023

This policy includes both the Night Run and Night Walk 2023

This policy is final and not dependent on circumstance.

- Until 5 months prior to race day – 11th June 2023, 50% refund on entry fee
- Until 3 months prior to race day – 11th August 2023, 25% refund on entry fee
- After 3 months prior to race day – 12th August 2023, No refunds given

We have a clear policy on refunds to remain fair to competitors. Our policy reflects an acknowledgement that circumstances arise beyond our participant's control. The clear cut off dates acknowledge the ongoing investment made by the organisers in regard to your entry. As a result, exceptions cannot be made to this policy.

Event Cancellation

Anyone entering the event accepts that their entry will automatically be deferred into the 2024 event should the event be cancelled for any reason. We have taken this necessary step to safeguard our financial risk in such an uncertain time.

Transferal of Entries Policy 2023

Entries may be transferred to another runner up until and including 5th October 2023. There will be no transferal of details after this point.

The Rutland Nigh10k team will deal with the changes of details but play no part in any financial transfers between participants.

Entries may also be transferred to another of our events including the Rutland Night10k 2024 up until and including 21st September 2023

Please note we do not advertise unwanted race entries.

If the event is cancelled due to covid restrictions your entry may be used as credit against another of our events. This includes national or local lockdowns or local authority refusing the relevant permissions.